COMPETITION RULES

1. Entrants must be members in good standing of a bona fide wine club.
2. There is no limit on the number of entries per person; however, each entry in a class must be from a different variety of grape or fruit or a different vintage or

- blend.
3. All entries must be properly labeled (2” x 3” minimum size) with the following information:
 - a. Class name
 - b. Entrant’s information:
 - i. Name
 - ii. Address
 - iii. E-mail address
 - c. Club name
 - d. Principal varietal
 - e. Number of entry in a particular class (e.g. 1 of 2, 1 of 3, etc.)
 - f. Any other information that the entrant feels is important (pH, SG, TA, etc.). The more information the judges have the better they are able to accurately judge your wine.
 - g. Each label must be securely attached to the bottle with an elastic band (not tape) for easy removal.
 4. Entries in Class F should specify the specific gravity so wines can be subdivided into dry and sweet.
 5. All entries become the property of Saanich Sommeliers.
 6. All entries will be judged in accordance with BCAWA rules and BCAWA official class descriptors.
 7. Vancouver Island reds and whites (class K and L) will be judged in accordance with classes C and D.
 8. Gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded in all classes.
 9. Trophies will be presented for first place in some classes.

Closing dated for entries is January 12, 2013
